

EUPSA Neonatal Surgery Masterclass 2020

This Course is designed to cover various aspects of surgery in newborn and premature infants. The essential areas covered will be assessment of neonatal pathology, diagnostics and decision making, focus on investigation, planning of procedures, emergency care management, surgical options with outcomes and postoperative care along with recommendations. The topics covered will be abdominal wall defects, intestinal atresias and malrotation, esophageal atresia, congenital diaphragmatic hernia, necrotizing enterocolitis, anorectal malformations, hepatobiliary pathologies and congenital pulmonary airway malformations.